Behind the Scenes: The Heartbeat of EABCT in Brussels

When we think of EABCT, we often picture the grand halls of our annual congress. But have you ever wondered what happens "behind the curtain" to make that magic possible? On the 7th of March, the General Meeting took place at the Palace of the Academies in Brussels.

What is EABCT actually all about?

Far from being just a list of voting items and financial reports, this meeting was a vibrant crossroads of expertise. Representatives from across Europe gathered - both in person and virtually - to weave the threads of our association together. It was a day of intense collaboration where we worked on evolving training standards, addressed vital issues of diversity and humanitarian crises, and looked ahead to our future congresses from Warsaw 2027 through to 2030.

A Community of People

The true essence of the meeting is in the energy of the room. Between discussions on regulations, there were moments of creative brainstorming on how to make the next congress as "Unique as you are". We left the Palace of the Academies not just with a to-do list, but with a renewed sense of belonging. EABCT is more than an organisation; it is a community of dedicated professionals working to make CBT thrive across Europe.

See you in Brussels to feel that energy for yourselves!
