

Call for Psychology Students !

Join the usher team for an exceptional congress and gain a unique experience.

Why apply?

- You're a master's, advanced-cycle, or doctoral student in clinical psychology: this role is perfect for you!
- Free access to the congress (entry fee waived)
- Attend sessions of interest, based on organisational needs
- Professional immersion in a high-level event—ideal for expanding your network and knowledge.

Applying as a pair ?

You can apply with a classmate. Each member of the pair must complete the questionnaire separately. Note :

- Both applications will be linked for recruitment purposes only
- Task distribution remains individual to foster team synergy.

Your tasks:

- Welcoming and guiding participants and speakers
- Managing registrations, badges, and room flow
- Logistical support (materials, technical, communication)
- Ensuring schedules and session management.

Profile sought:

- Psychology student (master's, advanced cycle, or PhD) with an interest in clinical work
- Professionalism, responsiveness, and team spirit
- Availability and punctuality for set time slots
- Ability to adapt to unforeseen situations
- Fluency in English (B1+ required).

To prepare your application, you'll need:

- Copy of your 2025–2026 student card
- Updated CV
- 5-line motivation statement.

A rare opportunity

Combine purpose, learning, and discovery in a stimulating environment!

Scan

